

Conservation In Action

August 20, 2024

7:30 - 1:00

5785 S 500 W Owensville, IN 47665

Krueger Family Farm ~ Gibson County

Dig deeper into the Soil Health Principle of "Maximizing Biodiversity". Discover how cover crop roots, beneficial insects, and grazing practices could benefit your farm.

Speakers:

- Dave Fischer–Fischer Fresh Farms - Grazing cover crops/ grazing row crop fields for added nutrients
- Travis Gogel–Soil Scientist NRCS - Root Structure of cover crops & erosion control/ nutrient uptake
- Nick Seiter- University of Illinois Entomologist - insect Biodiversity and beneficial insects

7:30 registration opens

8:00 Start and Introductions

8:10-10:30 3 station rotations - see topics above

10:50 Farmer panel - Discussion of Cover Crops Implementation

11:30 PARP Reg Topic - Worker Protection Standards

12:00 Lunch at Shinnyville Hill -Papa Bears catering

Event will move indoors in case of inclement weather

To register : Call Gibson County SWCD
812-385-5033 ext 3

<https://www.ccsin.org/event-details/conservation-in-action>

Conservation Cropping
Systems Initiative
Improving Soil Health on Indiana Crop Land

Extension

